JACKCAPTAIN

visual artist and author

Born in Milan and based in France, Jack Captain develops a visual language in which drawing becomes a space of tension, metamorphosis and projection.

Working with ink, markers and, at times, installations, he brings invisible presences, sacred figures, flowers charged with symbolism and human bodies shaped by animality and myth into view.

His collections move from the black and gold of PRESENCES to the vibrant colours of GODS & FLOWERS, and the monochromatic, sensual language of MYTHICS.

A STUDY OF MYTH AND ARCHETYPE

MYTHICS

We do not invent monsters. We remember them.
The artist explores the connections between myths, symbols and universal archetypes.
Born from the collective imagination, these timeless figures unite the male body with animal attributes, somewhere between the sacred, instinct and sensuality.
Elevated to the status of contemporary deities, they embody a primordial presence, as though each body carried within it the memory of a forgotten myth.

GODS & FLOWERS

WE DO NOT CREATE DEITIES
WE RECOGNIZE THEM

JACKCAPTAIN

GODS & FLOWERS

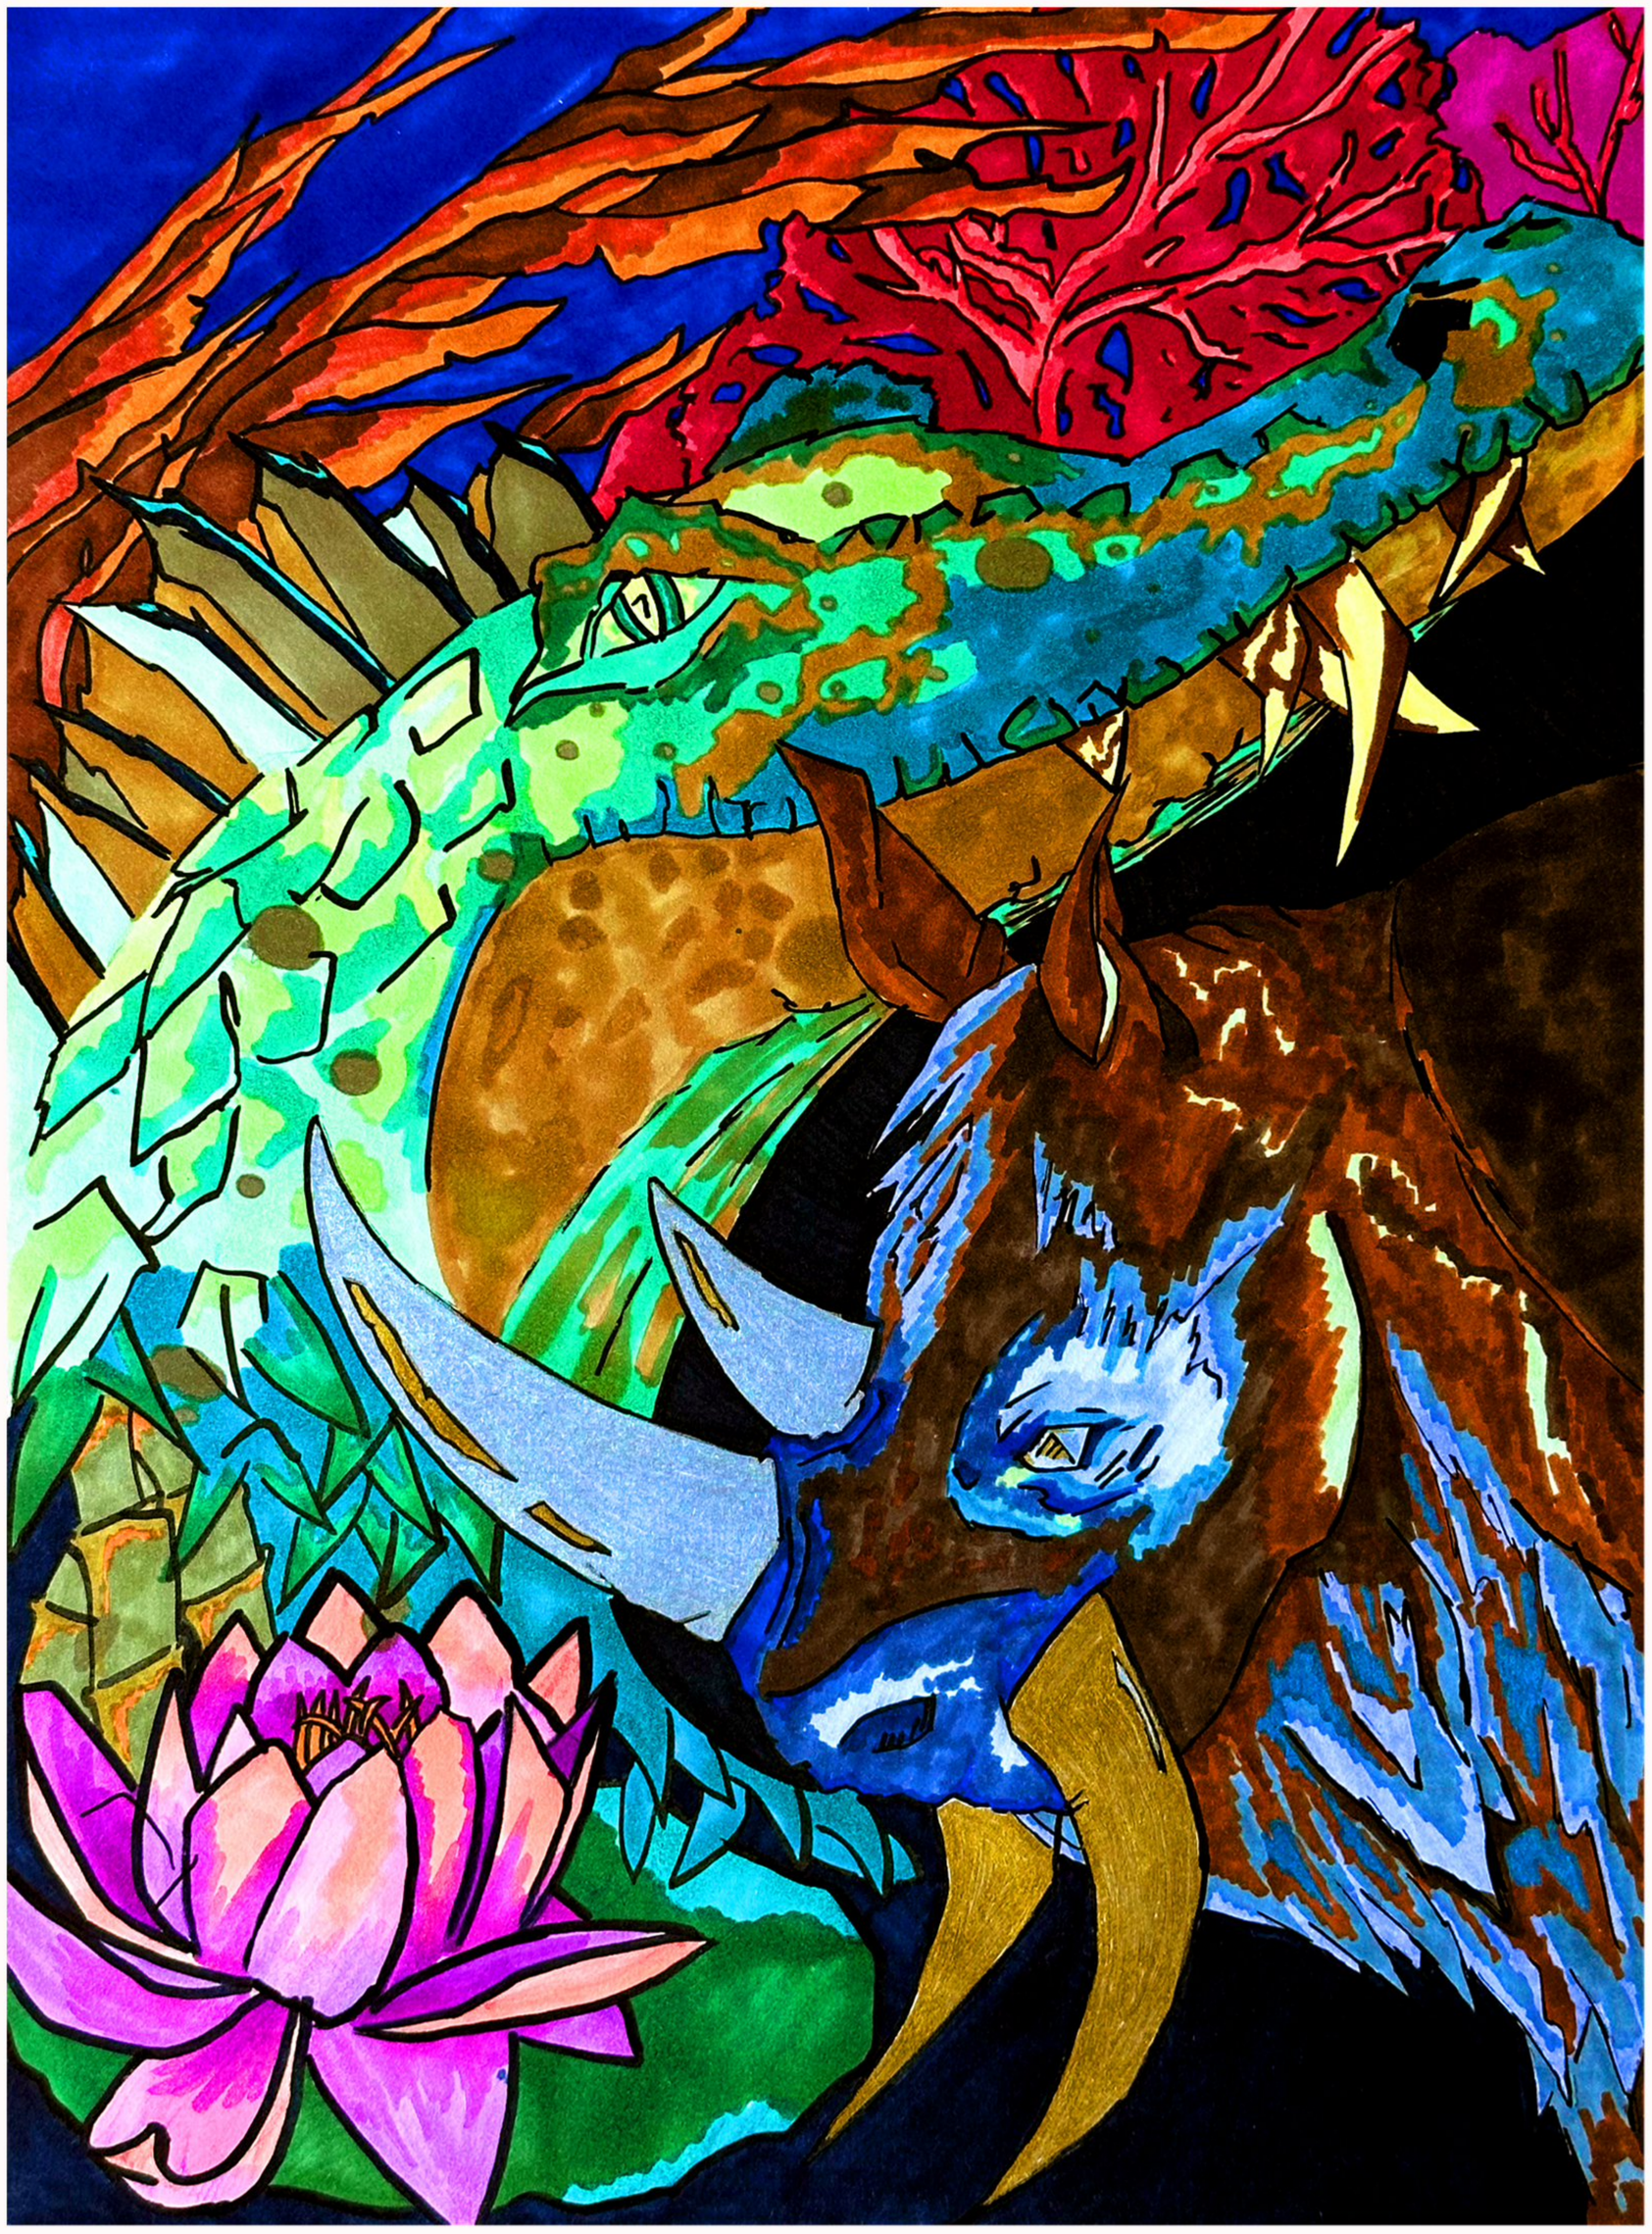

Gods & Flowers explores the relationship between flora, archetypes and myth.
Through the practice of drawing with markers, flowers and sacred figures come together to form timeless icons inspired by the collective imagination.
The series creates a contemporary pantheon of vibrant colours, influenced by international street art and symbolism.

We do not create deities.
We recognize them.

無界書
MUKAISYO

MUKAISYO explores the boundaries between symbols, writing and abstraction.
Inspired by shodō (書道), the Japanese art of calligraphy, this collection reinterprets symbols from different cultures, removing them from their original contexts to preserve only their graphic essence.
Through gesture, ink and intuition, these forms are reborn as an imaginary script, evoking abstract kanji without seeking to convey a defined language.
Freed from their original meanings,
the works invite each viewer to project their own interpretation onto them.
A new calligraphy without borders.

CREATIONS IN PROGRESS

New large-format artworks currently in development in the studio, planned for 2027.

DITTICO - IN PROGRESS

DITTICO explores fundamental duality through two monumental circular canvases.
Two animal figures with mythological elements emerge from matte, textured surfaces, contrasting with the brilliance of metallic leaf.
Imaginary seals, inspired by symbols from different cultures, accompany each figure.
Between the sacred, sensuality and contemplation, the artworks oscillate between appearance and disappearance.

SPECIFICATIONS

Two original circular canvases, each Ø 100 cm in diameter.
Mixed media: matte paint, textured relief and gold, silver and black metallic leaf.

VITRALIA - IN PROGRESS

VITRALIA explores the relationship between mythological figures and light through a contemporary reinterpretation of stained glass.
Deities and symbols take on a new dimension on transparent surfaces, where vibrant colours and black outlines interact with natural light.
Between the sacred and the collective imagination, the artworks transform throughout the day, oscillating between presence and transparency.

SPECIFICATIONS

Original artworks on glass, various formats.
Mixed media: translucent paint, raised outlines and natural light.
